

---

POLICY 18 – RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL (RSA) & LICENSING POLICY

Links: Committee, Starclub, Good Sports

Introduction

it is important that the club's bar facilities are operated in a friendly and efficient manner and in accordance with the requirements of the South Australian Liquor Licencing Act.

Such facilities provide a pleasant social environment for members, attract a wide range of greens and venue hire and provide a major income source for the club to promote the sport.

Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) Trained Personnel

In accordance with the provision of our Club Licence the following people have an RSA Certificate and are able to work behind the Glenelg Bowling Club bar:

- Peter Crowder (Bar Manager)
- Keith Miller (Stand-in Bar Manager)
- Jane Crowder
- Colin Davidson
- Ciaran Denny
- Leanne Dezilwa
- Bruce Dunstan
- Dean Evans
- Rudy Ferraro
- Ron Galpin
- David Gauci
- Rob Gill
- Steven Hall
- Peter Johnson
- Doug Kemp
- Mark McKay
- Milena McKay
- Greg Meyer
- Paul Meggison
- Stephen Meredith
- Peter Nash
- Peter Raven
- Paul Scrutton
- Russ Stovall
- Lyn Teague

- Robert Teague
- Peter Walter
- Glenn Westthorp

A copy of these RSA Certificates is to be kept in a register behind the bar in case they need to be viewed by the Police or a person designated to enforce the requirements of the Liquor Licensing Act.

Licensing Requirements

The Club will fulfill the requirements of the Club Licence (57212577), including:

- Displaying a copy of the license on the window near the front door;
- Displaying the signs provided by the Government Agency administering the Liquor Licensing Act;
- Not serving people alcohol under the age of 18 years;
- Not serving people alcohol who are deemed to be not drinking responsibly or on drugs;
- Maintaining an incident book and implementing responsible corrective measures.